

Childsplay's Student Activity Guide for: The Velveteen Rabbit

Today you saw a production of The Velveteen Rabbit performed by Childsplay. Here are some things to talk about and some activities to do now that you've seen the show!

Talk to your family, friends and/or classmates about the play you just saw. Talk about the following:

♥Tell them about the story and the characters. How many characters can you remember? Which characters were puppets and which were live actors? Which character was your favorite and why? What was your favorite part of the play? The boy was played by a grown up, but do you know how they made the boy seem small?

♥The boy and the velveteen rabbit become the best of friends. Do you have a favorite toy? What is it? Have you ever lost a toy that you really loved? How did you feel?

Here are some activities to do at home!

♥Imagine that you take a trip to the seaside. Make a postcard to send to a friend. Draw a picture of the seaside town on one side. Write to your friend on the other side, describing your trip. Don't forget the address and a stamp!

♥Create a puppet from common objects (a sock, a clothespin, a toilet paper roll). Choose a character from the play and make your own version of a puppet for that character. Use crayons, markers, pipe cleaners, feathers, scraps of fabric or any other found objects that might be interesting to use. Now, create a puppet play! First, work on manipulating (moving) the puppet by having it look at another puppet while having an improvised (made up) conversation. Try to make your puppet walk, run or do other physical things. Then, decide on a short story that has some kind of problem in it and play it out a few times until you are ready to share with your friends and family!

♥Go to the library and check out The Velveteen Rabbit by Margery Williams. Read the book aloud with parents/family/friends playing different parts!
