Today you saw a production of Lost and Foundling performed by Childsplay. Here are some things to think about and some activities to do now that you've seen the show!

Tell your family and/or friends about the play you saw.

► Tell them about the story and the characters: What happens in the beginning, the middle and the end of the play? How many characters can you remember? Which character was your favorite and why? What were some of the things the characters did? What was your favorite part of the play?

► Tell them about the costumes, scenery, props, lights, and sound effects from the production. Draw pictures to help describe things you talk about.

► Tell them about something new that you learned from the play.

Here's an activity for you to try:

If you could spend the night in a place like Mega Price-Mart, with no one else around except for one friend, what kinds of things would you do? What would the store be like after it closed? Which friend would you choose to be with you? What would you explore? Would you be afraid? Excited? You have access to the whole store and everything in it so really use your imagination! Now that you've thought about it, write a short story about what you think your night would be like. Be as detailed as possible and when you're finished, read it out loud for a friend or family member.
