Welcome to Childsplay Theatre's production of Elephant & Piggie's "We Are In A Play"! As Childsplay's Board President, I would like to welcome you to the Herberger Theater Center for another magical production in our 43rd season.

At Childsplay, we are committed to creating powerful theatre experiences for all Arizona children. Whether we are performing here in downtown Phoenix, setting up a stage in a school cafeteria in Yuma, or using drama to unpack a math lesson in a third grade classroom, our mission never changes.

When our 43rd season comes to a close in May, our commitment to imagination and wonder continues at our Campus in Tempe. This summer at Childsplay Theatre Academy, young people in more than 40 classes will work with professional Teaching Artists to develop acting skills, build confidence and make new friends.

We offer classes for ages 4-17 with themes that every explorer, entertainer and creator out there will love! Classes will fill up quickly so be sure to visit childsplayaz.org to register for your first choice of classes soon. We can't wait to continue Imagining Together with your family this summer.

We are so grateful you are here today to celebrate the joy of Mo Willems' hilarious characters with us. Please enjoy the show!

ASK AN ACTOR!

We asked the cast from Elephant & Piggie's "We Are In A Play!"

What do you think makes a great friend?

Here's what they said:

Katie: There are so many things that make me feel brave! I feel brave when I perform on stage, when I'm up high in an airplane, or on a ski lift (I'm scared of heights), but I feel especially brave when I stand up and speak out in support of people who may need help.

Jon: Someone that you feel better talking with when you have a problem. Even when the subject of your problem never comes up.

Hannah: A great friend is someone who will enjoy the good parts of life like a good movie or dessert and also shows up when you need a hug or shoulder to cry on!

Sedona: I think what makes a great friend is spending quality time with your friends, and supporting them with love and encouragement!

Kat: One of my favorite things about being an actor is the new friends I make in every show! I think four of the most important ingredients to a great friendship are: trust, loyalty, acceptance, and SILLINESS! Laughter with a good friend can solve lots of problems!

CHILDSPLAY LEADERSHIP

Dwayne Hartford (Childsplay Artistic Director) moved to Arizona in 1989. He answered an ad in the paper for an acting job. That job was for Childsplay. In 1992, he originated the role of the Father in Childsplay's world premiere production of The Yellow Boat. Dwayne has directed many shows for Childsplay, including: Ella Enchanted, The Phantom Tollbooth, and Flora & Ulysses. The first play he wrote, Eric and Elliot, received the 2005 Distinguished Play Award from the American Alliance of Theatre & Education (AATE). The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane received the same award in 2018. Dwayne's plays have been produced professionally around the country including Seattle Children's Theatre, Dallas Children's Theatre, Chicago Children's Theatre, and South Coast Repertory. Dwayne became Childsplay's Artistic Director upon the retirement of his mentor, the founder of the company, David Saar. Dwayne holds a BFA in musical theatre from the Boston Conservatory. He did graduate work in directing at Boston University. He is from the very small town of Smithfield, Maine.

Steve Martin (Managing Director) is in his 19th season as Managing Director at Childsplay. During this time, the company has moved into the Sybil B. Harrington Campus for Imagination and Wonder; secured significant funding from the US Department of Education for arts education programming throughout the metro Phoenix area; received funding from national foundations including the Hearst Foundation, Doris Duke Charitable Trust, and the Shubert Foundation; received substantial support from local foundations including the Legacy Foundation, Virginia G. Piper Charitable Trust, the Flinn Foundation, Steele Foundation, and the Helios Education Foundation; and produced more than 30 world premieres. He is a native of Toledo, Ohio, and a 1983 graduate of the University of Toledo. Martin is currently on the board of East Valley Partnership and formerly served on the boards of Arizona Citizens for the Arts (past President), TYA/USA - the national organization for theatre for young audiences and LORT/ League of Resident Theatres. Prior to joining Childsplay, he was Assistant Managing Director of the Alliance Theatre Company in Atlanta, Georgia, and the Managing Director of Virginia Stage Company in Norfolk, Virginia.

“One of the underlying core values of Childsplay is the notion of ensemble. There is a resident group of theatre artists (our Associate Artists) who, in collaboration with the Artistic Director, are responsible for planning and creating the artistic products that illustrate Childsplay’s mission. But these artists do not create in isolation. Everyone who works at Childsplay — other artists, technicians, educators, administrators and trustees — is a part of this resident ensemble. This mindset guides the way our work is created, the way it is marketed and the way it is delivered.”
