Childsplay, Arizona's professional theatre for young audiences has an immediate opening for a Wardrobe Supervisor. Candidate should be a self-starter and possess good communication skills with a solid wardrobe and costuming background, general sewing and garment repair skills, familiarity with wigs, attention to detail, the ability to take direction and work independently as well as closely with others.

Duties include, but are not limited to running wardrobe during on stage productions, run list development, quick changes, costume maintenance and cleaning, wig maintenance, supervising dressers, occasional backstage crew assistance, basic sewing skills, alterations, craft work, stock organization, and attending rehearsals.

Position is full-time seasonal per production contract, with a weekly salary of $475-500/week D.O.E.. 2019-20 season consists of 5 stage productions totaling 32 contract weeks between 8/26/19 and 5/24/20. Rehearsals and costume shop/storage are located at the Childsplay campus in Tempe with performances at the Herberger Theatre in Phoenix. Performances are Tuesday thru Friday mornings and weekend mid-day/afternoons, with occasional afternoon/evening weekday performances based on individual production schedules. This position is not eligible for health benefits.

Childsplay values equity, diversity, and inclusion throughout our organization, programs and audiences. We are committed to giving underrepresented artists a safe space to create art and community. By welcoming people with differences in religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation, class, gender identity, ability, and age we are better able to celebrate that which brings humankind together: imagination and wonder. Founded in 1977, Childsplay's mission is "to create theatre so strikingly original in form, content or both, that it instills in young people an enduring awe, love, and respect for the medium, thus preserving imagination and wonder, those hallmarks of childhood, that are the keys to the future."
